Atlantic Financial Federal Credit Union Names New Board Chairman and Board Members

Hunt Valley, MD – Atlantic Financial Federal Credit Union (AFFCU) is proud to announce the recent changes to its Board of Directors, including the appointment of a new Board Chairman, as well as two new board members.

Wade Walters has been appointed as the new Chairman of the Board of Directors at Atlantic Financial Federal Credit Union. Wade has been a part of the AFFCU Board of Directors since 2012. Wade has an extensive background as an executive in the finance and investment fields, having managed multi-billion dollar asset backed securities investment portfolios.

Additionally, James “Jim” Crogan, Jr and Julian Terry were elected as new board members. Recently retired, Jim has an extensive law background having served as an attorney for over 36 years. Julian, an AFFCU member for over 30 years, is a project engineer with AECOM where he harnesses his civil design and engineering expertise. Both Jim and Julian volunteered to serve on the board to be an intricate part of a strong organization and give back to the credit union, while continuing to help AFFCU serve its members.

Matthew Piazza, AFFCU President and CEO, stated, “I look forward to working with Wade as the new Board Chairman. I greatly appreciate his ambition and commitment to lead the volunteer board of directors and help drive AFFCU’s continued growth and success. I’m also excited about the additions of Jim and Julian to the AFFCU Board of Directors. I look forward to the insight and experience that they have to help us continue to move the credit union forward. It is a unique opportunity to work with and have a board that is entirely made up of volunteer members of the credit union. I graciously thank each and every one for their dedication and commitment to serve the credit union.”
